2. Latin

Touches. Owned by Miami pop power couple Emilio and Gloria Estefan, Costa d'Este Beach Resort in Vero Beach brings Miami's signature Latin feel a little further north. Located in one of the 100 best art towns in America, according to renowned art/travel writer John Villani, this 94-room resort calls to mind mid-century modern design with a contemporary flair of geometrical interest and curvilinear forms. The signature restaurant, Oriente, naturally features gourmet Cuban-fusion cuisine, and the resort also comes equipped with a full service spa, a cutting edge fitness facility and a serene infinity-edge pool. Like the Estefans' low-key celebrity, this resort offers an ideal option for the unpretentious and unspoiled traveler. Rates from $269 per night. 3244 Ocean Drive, Vero Beach, 772/562-9919.
